RE: Adam R. Grossman Bankruptcy petition #10-19817

To whom it may concern,

In May 2010 Adam R. Grossman asked Peter Zieve to loan him $120,000 to purchase a property. Mr. Zieve agreed, and since Mr. Grossman represented that time was of the essence and that a personal check from Mr. Zieve would take several days to clear through Adam's personal account, asked him to write the check to Terrington Davies Tanager Fund, which would clear faster and provide Mr. Grossman with the funds needed to complete the purchase in a timely manner.

Mr. Zieve wrote a personal check from his personal account to "Terrington Davies Tanager Fund" and wrote in the memo area "90 day loan FBO Adam Grossman" with the intention that the money would be available directly to Mr. Grossman for the real estate purchase (see attached copy).

Mr. Zieve received no lien on that property purchased or any other property, and his loan agreement with Mr. Grossman was verbal.

To date, Mr. Zieve has received no payment on this loan.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

Penalty for presenting fraudulent claim: Fine of up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152 and 3571.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2003(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount paid due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a):

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, attach a complete copy of any power of attorney, and provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. If the authorized agent is a servicer, identify the corporate servicer as the company. Criminal penalties apply for making a false statement on a proof of claim.

DEFINITIONS

INFORMATION

Debtor

A debtor is the person, corporation, or other entity that has filed a bankruptcy case.

Creditor

A creditor is a person, corporation, or other entity to whom debtor owes a debt that was incurred before the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Claim

A claim is the creditor's right to receive payment for a debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. See 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Proof of Claim

A proof of claim is a form used by the creditor to indicate the amount of the debt owed by the debtor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The creditor must file the form with the clerk of the same bankruptcy court in which the bankruptcy case was filed.

Secured Claim Under 11 U.S.C. § 506 (a)

A secured claim is one backed by a lien on property of the debtor. The claim is secured so long as the creditor has the right to be paid from the property prior to other creditors. The amount of the secured claim cannot exceed the value of the property. Any amount owed to the creditor in excess of the value of the property is an unsecured claim. Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment is a lien.

A claim also may be secured if the creditor owes the debtor money (has a right to setoff).

Unsecured Claim

An unsecured claim is one that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be partly unsecured if the amount of the claim exceeds the value of the property on which the creditor has a lien.

Claims Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a)

Priority claims are certain categories of unsecured claims that are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims.

Redacted

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. A creditor must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

Evidence of Perfection

Evidence of perfection may include a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, financing statement, or other document showing that the lien has been filed or recorded.

Acknowledgment of Filing of Claim

To receive acknowledgment of your filing, you may either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this proof of claim or you may access the court's PACER system (www.pacer.psc.uscourts.gov) for a small fee to view your filed proof of claim.

Offers to Purchase a Claim

Certain entities are in the business of purchasing claims for an amount less than the face value of the claims. One or more of these entities may contact the creditor and offer to purchase the claim. Some of the written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court or the debtor. The creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if the creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of such claim is subject to FRBP 3001(e), any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.), and any applicable orders of the bankruptcy court.

Exhibit to Proof Claim

Mr. Lyman Opie loaned an aggregate principal amount of $205,000 to Mr. Grossman. Mr. Opie made a total of four disbursements to Mr. Grossman:

- $15,000 on October 6, 2009 (disbursement made by check)
- $35,000 on November 13, 2009 (disbursement made by wire transfer)
- $135,000 on May 25, 2010 (disbursement made by wire transfer)
- $20,000 on October 13, 2010 (disbursement made by check)<sup>1</sup>

The first three disbursements were made to Terrington Davies Capital, which is a company owned or controlled by Mr. Grossman. The last disbursement was made to “Tsai Law Firm,” who has represented Mr. Grossman in connection with his dissolution proceeding. Attached to this proof of claim are copies of wire transfer receipts and checks showing those disbursements.

As security for his indebtedness, Mr. Grossman executed two deeds of trust for property commonly known as 20710 Glennview Drive, Cottonwood, California. The first deed is dated May 25, 2010, but was apparently never recorded. The second deed appears to have been recorded post-petition by Mr. Grossman on December 20, 2010. Attached are copies of the deeds of trust.

In connection with the $15,000 loan and the $35,000 loan, Mr. Grossman executed a promissory note dated December 31, 2009. In connection with the $135,000 loan, Mr. Grossman executed a promissory note dated May 25, 2010. (The $20,000 disbursement may be accounted for under the May 25, 2010 promissory note because the note expressly provided for the possibility that additional loans of up to $30,000 might be made pursuant to its terms.) Attached are copies of the promissory notes.

Post-petition interest, fees and other costs continue accrue under the terms of the above notes. In connection with this case, Mr. Opie has incurred substantial attorneys’ fees, which are payable under the terms of the loans. Mr. Opie reserves the right to supplement this proof of claim from time to time to include such amounts and any other amounts that may become payable to him.

<sup>1</sup> The final $20,000 disbursement was made after the commencement of the case. Mr. Opie reserves the right to seek repayment of the disbursement, and interest thereon, as an administrative expense.

Deed of Trust and Assignment of Rents

This Deed of Trust, made this _____ day of _____, between
ADAM R. GROSSMAN
whose address is 6821 39th Avenue NE Seattle WA 98115
(number and street) (city) (state) (zip)
herein called TRUSTOR
FIRST AMERICAN TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY, a California corporation, herein called TRUSTEE, and LYMAN C. OPIE

herein called BENEFICIARY,
Witnesseth: That Trustor IRREVOCABLY GRANTS, TRANSFERS AND ASSIGNS TO TRUSTEE IN TRUST, WITH POWER OF SALE, that property in the City of unincorporated area _____, County of Tehama California, described as:

the property commonly known as 20710 Glennview Dr, Cottonwood, CA

Together With the rents, issues and profits thereof, SUBJECT, HOWEVER, to the right, power and authority hereinafter given to and conferred upon Beneficiary to collect and apply such rents, issues and profits.

For the Purpose of Securing:

1. Performance of each agreement of Trustor herein contained. 2. Payment of the indebtedness evidenced by one promissory note of even date herewith, and any extension or renewal thereof, in the principal sum of $ 300,000.00 executed by Trustor in favor of Beneficiary or order. 3. Payment of such further sums as the then record owner of said property hereafter may borrow from Beneficiary, when evidenced by another note (or notes) reciting it is so secured.

To Protect the Security of This Deed of Trust, Trustor Agrees:

(1) To keep said property in good condition and repair; not to remove or demolish any building thereon; to complete or restore promptly and in good and workmanlike manner any building which may be constructed, damaged or destroyed thereon and to pay when due all claims for labor performed and materials furnished therefor; to comply with all laws affecting said property or requiring any alterations or improvements to be made thereon; not to commit or permit waste thereof; not to commit, suffer or permit any act upon said property in violation of law; to cultivate, irrigate, fertilize, fumigate, prune and do all other acts which from the character or use of said property may be reasonably necessary, the specific enumerations herein not excluding the general.

(2) To provide, maintain and deliver to Beneficiary fire insurance satisfactory to and with loss payable to Beneficiary. The amount collected under any fire or other insurance policy may be applied by Beneficiary upon any indebtedness secured hereby and in such order as Beneficiary may determine, or at option of Beneficiary the entire amount so collected or any part thereof may be released to Trustor. Such application or release shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

(3) To appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; and to pay all costs and expenses, including cost of evidence of title and attorney's fees in a reasonable sum, in any such action or proceeding in which Beneficiary or Trustee may appear, and in any suit brought by Beneficiary to foreclose this Deed.

(4) To pay: at least ten days before delinquency all taxes and assessments affecting said property, including assessments on appurtenant water stock; when due, all encumbrances, charges and liens, with interest, on said property or any part thereof, which appear to be prior or superior hereto; all costs, fees and expenses of this Trust.

Should Trustor fail to make any payment or to do any act as herein provided, then Beneficiary or Trustee, but without obligation so to do and without notice to or demand upon Trustor and without releasing Trustor from any obligation hereof, may: make or do the same in such manner and to such extent as either may deem necessary to protect the security hereof, Beneficiary or Trustee being authorized to enter upon said property for such purposes; appear in and defend any action or proceeding purporting to affect the security hereof or the rights or powers of Beneficiary or Trustee; pay, purchase, contest or compromise any encumbrance, charge or lien which in the judgment of either appears to be prior or superior hereto; and, in exercising any such powers, pay necessary expenses, employ counsel and pay his reasonable fees.

(5) To pay immediately and without demand all sums so expended by Beneficiary or Trustee, with interest from date of expenditure at the amount allowed by law in effect at the date hereof, and to pay for any statement provided for by law in effect at the date hereof regarding the obligation secured hereby any amount demanded by the Beneficiary not to exceed the maximum allowed by law at the time when said statement is demanded.

(6) That any award of damages in connection with any condemnation for public use of or injury to said property or any part thereof is hereby assigned and shall be paid to Beneficiary who may apply or release such moneys received by him in the same manner and with the same effect as above provided for disposition of proceeds of fire or other insurance.

(7) That by accepting payment of any sum secured hereby after its due date, Beneficiary does not waive his right either to require prompt payment when due of all other sums so secured or to declare default for failure so to pay.

(8) That at any time or from time to time, without liability therefor and without notice, upon written request of Beneficiary and presentation of this Deed and said note for endorsement, and without affecting the personal liability of any person for payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, Trustee may: reconvey any part of said property; consent to the making of any map or plat thereof; join in granting any easement thereon; or join in any extension agreement or any agreement subordinating the lien or charge hereof.

(9) That upon written request of Beneficiary stating that all sums secured hereby have been paid, and upon surrender of this Deed and said note to Trustee for cancellation and retention and upon payment of its fees, Trustee shall reconvey, without warranty, the property then held hereunder. The recitals in such reconveyance of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. The grantee in such reconveyance may be described as "the person or persons legally entitled thereto". Five years after issuance of such full reconveyance, Trustee may destroy said note and this Deed (unless directed in such request to retain them).

(10) That as additional security, Trustor hereby gives to and confers upon Beneficiary the right, power and authority, during the continuance of these Trusts, to collect the rents, issues and profits of said property, reserving unto Trustor the right, prior to any default by Trustor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such rents, issues and profits as they become due and payable. Upon any such default, Beneficiary may at any time without notice, either in person, by agent, or by a receiver to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in his own name sue for or otherwise collect such rents, issues and profits, including those past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as Beneficiary may determine. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such rents, issues and profits and the application thereof as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of default hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.

(11) That upon default by Trustor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, Beneficiary may declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable by delivery to Trustee of written declaration of default and demand for sale and of written notice of default and of election to cause to be sold said property, which notice Trustee shall cause to be filed for record. Beneficiary also shall deposit with Trustee this Deed, said note and all documents evidencing expenditures secured hereby.

After the lapse of such time as may then be required by law following the recordation of said notice of default, and notice of sale having been given as then required by law, Trustee, without demand on Trustor, shall sell said property at the time and place fixed by it in said notice of sale, either as a whole or in separate parcels, and in such order as it may determine, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, payable at time of sale. Trustee may postpone sale of all or any portion of said property by public announcement at such time and place of sale, and from time to time thereafter may postpone such sale by public announcement at the time fixed by the preceding postponement. Trustee shall deliver to such purchaser its deed conveying the property so sold, but without any covenant or warranty, express or implied. The recitals in such deed of any matters or facts shall be conclusive proof of the truthfulness thereof. Any person, including Trustor, Trustee, or Beneficiary as hereinafter defined, may purchase at such sale.

After deducting all costs, fees and expenses of Trustee and of this Trust, including cost of evidence of title in connection with sale, Trustee shall apply the proceeds of sale to payment of: all sums expended under the terms hereof, not then repaid, with accrued interest at the amount allowed by law in effect at the date hereof; all other sums then secured hereby; and the remainder, if any, to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

(12) Beneficiary, or any successor in ownership of any indebtedness secured hereby, may from time to time, by instrument in writing, substitute a successor or successors to any Trustee named herein or acting hereunder, which instrument, executed by the Beneficiary and duly acknowledged and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county or counties where said property is situated, shall be conclusive proof of proper substitution of such successor Trustee or Trustees, who shall, without conveyance from the Trustee predecessor, succeed to all its title, estate, rights, powers and duties. Said instrument must contain the name of the original Trustor, Trustee and Beneficiary hereunder, the book and page where this Deed is recorded and the name and address of the new Trustee.

(13) That this Deed applies to, inures to the benefit of, and binds all parties hereto, their heirs, legatees, devisees, administrators, executors, successors and assigns. The term Beneficiary shall mean the owner and holder, including pledgees, of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as Beneficiary herein. In this Deed, whenever the context so requires, the masculine gender includes the feminine and/or neuter, and the singular number includes the plural.

(14) That Trustee accepts this Trust when this Deed, duly executed and acknowledged, is made a public record as provided by law. Trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other Deed of Trust or of any action or proceeding in which Trustor, Beneficiary or Trustee shall be a party unless brought by Trustee.

The undersigned Trustor requests that a copy of any Notice of Default and of any Notice of Sale hereunder be mailed to him at his address hereinbefore set forth.

Promissory Note

Part 1. Names

Borrower:

ADAM R. GROSSMAN
6821 39th Avenue NE
Seattle, Washington 98115

Lender:

LYMAN C. OPIE
60 Magazine Street
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

In this promissory note, the term Borrower refers to one or more borrowers. If there is more than one borrower, they agree to be jointly and severally liable. In the event of Borrower's death, Borrower's estate shall be fully responsible for all principal and interest under the terms of this note. The term Lender refers to any person who legally holds this note, including a buyer in due course.

Part 2. Promise to Pay

For value received (i.e., $15,000 on October 8, 2009, and $35,000 on November __, 2009), Borrower promises to pay Lender $55,668.27 as specified below.

Part 3. Payment Date

Borrower will pay the entire amount of principal and interest on or before January 31, 2011, and is extendible by agreement of both parties in writing. Payment shall be made via domestic bank wire as instructed by Lender or as otherwise determined if mutually agreed by Lender and Borrower in writing.

Part 4. Interest Payments

Interest shall be charged on the sum specified in Part 2 at the rate of 9% per year and compounded continuously from the date the above-referenced sums were received until the date it is paid in full. (Borrower will receive credits for prepayments, reducing the total amount of interest to be paid.)

Part 5. Prepayment

Borrower may prepay all or any part of the principal without penalty.

Part 6. Security

This note is secured by the real estate described in the attached mortgage or deed of trust.

Part 7. Collection Costs

If Lender prevails in a lawsuit to collect on this note, Borrower will pay Lender's costs and lawyer's fees in an amount the court finds to be reasonable.

Part 8. Late Payment

If repayment in full is not made by the due date, interest shall accrue at a daily rate of 20% per annum and shall continue to accrue until all interest and principal is repaid in full.

Part 9. Notices

Lender and Borrower shall keep each other mutually informed of their current addresses or other ways they prefer to be contacted.

The term Lender refers to any person who legally holds this note, including a buyer in due course.

Part 2. Promise to Pay

For value received of $135,000 on May 25, 2010, and up to $165,000 at the sole discretion of the Lender at any later date, Borrower promises to pay Lender the balance in full as specified below.

Part 3. Payment Date

Borrower will pay the entire amount of principal and interest on or before June 25, 2010, and is extendible by agreement of both parties in writing. Payment shall be made via domestic bank wire as instructed by Lender or as otherwise determined if mutually agreed by Lender and Borrower in writing.

Part 4. Interest Payments

Interest shall accrue daily at the end of each and every calendar day at the Daily Rate until the principal and interest are paid in full. The Daily Rate shall be $100/day for each calendar day prior to the Payment Date and the Daily Rate shall increase by $5/day each calendar day starting on the Payment Date.

Part 5. Prepayment

Borrower may prepay the principal prior to the Payment Date. If the principal and interest have been repaid in full, interest shall not accrue.

Part 6. Security

This note is secured by the real estate described in the attached mortgage or deed of trust.

Part 7. Collection Costs

If Lender prevails in a lawsuit to collect on this note, Borrower will pay Lender's costs and lawyer's fees in an amount the court finds to be reasonable.

Part 8. Late Payment

Lender shall be entitled to initiate a foreclosure against the property securing this note 30 days after the Payment Date if all Principal and Interest are not paid in full.

Part 9. Notices

Lender and Borrower shall keep each other mutually informed of their current addresses or other ways they prefer to be contacted.

Part 10. Disputes

If a dispute arises, either party may take the matter to court.

Signature of Borrower

RESPONSES

ADAM R. GROSSMAN Declares as follows:

The attached documents, Bates numbered 1571-1603, include a letter from my attorney and attachments thereto. The facts stated in those documents are accurate with one correction:

At the bottom of page 7 of my attorney's letter (#1577), he states that I "redeemed a portion of TDCM's units in Tanager Fund to raise $118,000." The units redeemed were units held in the name of Ms. Borodin and myself, not TDCM as stated.

With that correction, I swear under penalty of perjury the laws of the State of Washington that the attached documents are true and accurate.

Re: Grossman-Borodin Dissolution

Dear Jennie:

This letter follows Adam's production of discovery responses and is intended to provide a road-map for that material. In particular, I would like to address the history of Adam's business entities and provide an overview of how Adam has managed the community assets held by those entities since the time Jill filed for divorce in April 2009..

I. Overview of Adam's Business Interests.

Adam has interests in the following four business entities:

- Terrington Davies Tanager Fund
- Terrington Davies
- Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund
- Terrington Davies Capital Management

This letter will now describe these four entities and explain how they are related.

First, I would like to note that it is common practice in the asset management industry to use a two-entity structure consisting of one legal entity which exists merely to hold client assets (the "Fund") and a second legal entity which manages the client assets in the fund (the "Advisor"). The "fund" entity typically pays fees to the "advisor" entity based on the size and performance of the fund. Two such relationships are present here:

1. The Tanager Fund holds client assets, solely in the form of securities held and traded within a single Schwab One Brokerage account held in the name of Terrington Davies Tanager Fund LP. Terrington Davies LLC is the advisor entity for the Tanager Fund.

Jennie Laird
June 6, 2010

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

2. The Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC was established to hold client assets, which at this time consist entirely of one house in California purchased entirely with community funds. Terrington Davies Capital Management LLC is the advisor entity for the Ptarmigan Fund.

Terrington Davies Tanager Fund LP: Adam formed this limited partnership in 2006 with his friend Jeffrey Bernstein, who is an attorney. The Tanager Fund is registered with the SEC as an investment fund that trades "S & P index derivatives." (Form D filed with SEC on 10/11/06) (Bates # 1547) The sale of a limited partnership interest in the fund is considered to be a sale of securities for purposes of SEC regulations.

The Tanager Fund is a Limited Partnership registered in Delaware. The General Partner (the "Advisor") is Terrington Davies LLC, which is described below.

The limited partnership and the securities it issues are regulated by the SEC under Reg D, §604,605,606, under "small business" exemptions. This form of registration has the advantages of less costly registration, reporting, and filing requirements. The disadvantages are that the fund's size is limited, it cannot advertise or make a public offering, and all solicitations must be to individuals or entities with whom the person making the solicitation has a (loosely defined) pre-existing relationship. The names of the investors are confidential. Due to the private nature of a small fund (i.e., its securities are not registered and cannot be traded publicly), all potential investors are people whom Adam and Jeff know personally which may include some from the Congregation Beth Shalom community. This divorce has had a significant, negative impact on Adam's ability to sell additional limited partnership interests.

The investors purchase "capital units" in the fund based on the unit price at the time they invest in the fund. The unit price for a "capital unit" is referred to as the "NAV," which usually stands for "net asset value" but occasionally is used by a minority of financial writers for "net asset value per share [or per capital unit]." Adam reports that using "NAV" without the qualifier "per share" or "per capital unit" is not as clear as explicitly using the terms "Capital Unit Value" or "Unit Value," but he and Mr. Bernstein started using NAV to indicate "unit value" early on, and have stuck with that terminology to be consistent. (The limited partnership agreement actually uses the term "UNIT VALUE POST-FEE.") (# 1558) Thus, anyplace you see "NAV," please understand that it is referring the fund's "capital unit value" and the valuation is on a per-unit basis. If the NAV is 1.0000, the value of each capital unit is $1.00 and corresponds to what most people understand as "share price."

The fund was capitalized when 250,000 units were sold for $1/unit in June 2006. Adam and Jill provided $220,000 of the initial $250,000 investment, thereby acquiring 220,000 units at the opening NAV of $1/unit. Since that initial capitalization at $1/unit, the NAV has varied over time based on the fund's performance. The NAV is set at the end of each calendar month. The

June 6, 2010

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

highest NAV was 1.8786 on 6/30/09, which means that an investor buying in during the month of July 2009 would have paid $1.88/unit. The 5/31/10 NAV was 0.913. An investor today would pay only $0.93/unit. (The current value is stated for illustrative purposes only. Adam is not currently seeking new investors for the Tanager Fund because he and his partner are probably going to close the fund.)

As investors were added, the number of capital units increased. The number of investors (and the number of capital units for fund) can also decrease because limited partners have the unconditional right redeem all or part of their capital investment at any time by simply notifying the General Partner that they would like to do so. The amount of notice required to redeem units depends on the number of units being redeemed and ranges from 10 to 60 days. (#1559) One investor liquidated his entire account shortly after it became known to him that Jill and Adam's divorce had become less amicable. Two more have requested to liquidate their accounts effective 5/31/10, and another investor has given notice that he intends to redeem his units in the immediate future, but his notice to redeem is still pending. Adam has also redeemed the bulk of the parties' capital units in the Tanager Fund, which I will explain in more detail below. The money Adam received upon redemption of the Tanager Fund units is now invested in a house held by the Ptarmigan Fund, which I will also address below.

The highest number of capital units in the fund was 782,487<sup>1</sup>, which was the number of units in the fund from October 2008 through January 2009. The fund currently comprises 385,892 units. The total net asset value of the fund as of 5/31/10 was $371,570.74. This is an extremely small asset base for an investment fund, which is one reason why Adam and Mr. Bernstein are considering closing the fund.

I have attached a spread sheet that brings together a lot of information about the fund's performance on a month-by-month basis from the time it was opened in June 2006 through May 2010. (Tab 1)

Also attached is a second spreadsheet showing all purchases and redemptions of capital units in the Tanager Fund. (Tab 2) (This answers Steve Kessler's question regarding new investment and redemptions for each year of the fund's existence.) On the list of client names, Adam has redacted all names of clients who have no relation to the parties. The client identified as "TDCM, LLC" is Terrington Davies Capital Management, LLC. Transactions in the name of TDCM, LLC were not redacted because the money invested or withdrawn in the name of TDCM, LLC, is actually community money.

At the present time, the parties hold 6,747 capital units in the Tanager fund in the names of their children and 493 units in the name of TDCM, LLC. At 5/31/10 NAV of 0.9613, the <sup>1</sup> All figures in this letter regarding the number of units in the Tanager are rounded to whole numbers. The attached spreadsheet actually breaks the units down to four decimal places, which is more detail than we need for this letter.

Jennie Laird
June 6, 2010

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

consolidated value of the parties' holdings in the Tanager Fund is $6,960. (Before anyone has an anxiety attack in response to that figure, the overwhelming bulk of the parties' holdings is now invested in a house held in the name of the Ptarmigan Fund.

Adam provided tax returns for the Tanager Fund, LP, which is the only one of these entities that has filed a tax return. The returns were prepared by the Peterson Sullivan accounting firm. No financial statements were prepared prior to preparing the tax returns because the fund's accounting was so simple: 100% of the fund's assets are held in a single Schwab brokerage account. There are trades within the Schwab account that have a gains and losses, and there is a small amount of interest income. Positions are marked-to-market on the account statements. Accordingly, the accountants have agreed that financial statements are not necessary because they could prepare accurate tax returns without them. Accordingly, no financial statements have ever been prepared for the Tanager Fund LP.

Terrington Davies. Terrington Davies LLC, is the general partner and advising entity for Terrington Davies Tanager Fund LP. Terrington Davies LLC is owned by Adam and Jeffrey Bernstein. Terrington Davies' only source of income is fee revenue from the Tanager Fund LP. The Tanager Fund's obligation to pay fees to Terrington Davies LLC, is defined by the Investment Management Agreement between those two entities. (# 1532-38)

Adam and Mr. Bernstein's relationship is defined by their Principal's Agreement. (# 1539-41) They have equal voting rights (i.e., equal management control). Because Adam spends more time working on the fund as the trading manager, retained earnings are distributed 2/3's to Adam and 1/3 to Mr. Bernstein. Accordingly, Adam is also responsible for meeting 2/3's of any capital calls.

As provided in the Investment Management Agreement, the Tanager Fund LP, pays fees to Terrington Davies LLC, using the most common industry standard:

- Administrative fees: 2% of the next asset base, calculated and paid monthly (1/12th of 2% of the fund's total net asset value, calculated on the last day of each month).
- Performance-based fees: 20% of profits as defined by the amount by which the fund's net asset value at the end of any month exceeds the previous High Water Mark ("HWM") multiplied by the total number of capital units.

The HWM for any given month is defined as the highest NAV (i.e., capital unit value) for any of the preceding 11 months. For May 2010, for example, the HWM was 1.8786 based on the NAV at the end of June 2009, which was the highest month-end NAV for the preceding 11 months. For July 2010, the HWM will drop to 1.6108 based on the NAV at the end of February 2010, which is the highest month-end NAV for the 11 months prior to June 2010. Unless the

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

fund exceeds an NAV of 1.6108 in the interim, the operative HWM will be 1.6108 through January 2011. The purpose of a HWM is to prevent the Advisor from being paid twice for the same gain, i.e., not being required to make-up any loss before being paid for a gain.

Thus, during periods when the fund's NAV increases each month, the Tanager Fund pays an advising fee to Terrington Davies at the end of each month which is equal to 20% of the previous month's increase. If the fund's NAV holds steady or decreases, no performance based fees are paid until the fund once again exceeds the relevant HWM.

Adam and Mr. Bernstein are paid by Terrington Davies LLC whenever there are "retained earnings" available for distribution. (#1540, ¶ 6). Retained earnings are split 1/3-2/3's and paid to the partners irregularly. To be clear: the Tanager Fund LP pays fees to TD LLC. TD LLC has ongoing administrative expenses that must be covered before any distribution of retained earnings can be made. Adam and Mr. Bernstein have paid themselves when it appeared that they could do so while still leaving sufficient operating capital in the TD LLC operating account (which is a Schwab One Account in the name of TD LLC).

The spreadsheet attached as Tab 1 shows the administrative fees (2%) and performance-based fees (20%) that have been paid each month since the fund was started. The fund has not generated any performance based fees since 6/30/09, when the current HWM was set.

With a 5/31/10 NAV of 0.913 and a current HWM 1.6108, there is no expectation that the fund will generate any performance based fees for the foreseeable future.

We have included unsigned agreements for the formation of Terrington Davies LLC. Adam is not sure that he and Jeffrey ever signed the agreements, though they have followed them and rely upon the written agreements as the basis for their business relationship.

Due to the poor performance of the fund, the unlikelihood that it will generate any performance based fee income in the foreseeable future, and the shrinking size of the asset base, Adam and Mr. Bernstein are discussing whether, when, and how best to close the fund. For a variety of reasons, they do not believe it would be best to simply close the fund immediately, but they are moving in that direction. As it stands right now, Terrington Davies LLC, needs to have its accountants (Peterson and Sullivan) prepare Tanager Fund's tax return, and there's not enough money held by Terrington Davies LLC to cover that expense. Adam and Mr. Bernstein will have to pay in additional capital to Terrington Davies LLC to cover the expected accounting fees. Additional paid-in capital by Adam will probably be around $10,000 to $15,000.

The only tangible asset held by Terrington Davies LLC, is the Charles Schwab account in the name of Terrington Davies LLC, which they use as a checking account. A full set of statements for the Terrington Davies Schwab account was provided with Adam's discovery responses. (See documents produced in response to Request for Production No. 10)

Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund: After the Financial Crisis of 2008 and the Madoff Scandal, it began to appear that the Tanager Fund would not continue to progress according to plan as it had since inception. Future growth at the projected rates became questionable thus limiting its ability to provide income. Adam therefore established the Ptarmigan Fund in February, 2009 after initial research started in December, 2008 led him to believe it held opportunity. The purpose of the fund was to identify, purchase, and hold real property in the vicinity of Redding, California. The strategy behind the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund is to buy properties with little to no equity subject to existing financing, hold them for approximately 4 to 6 years, and then sell them either with buyer obtained financing or seller-financed.

As I will explain, the Ptarmigan fund has essentially gone nowhere, and the two business entities related to that fund (Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC and TDCM LLC) have little significance. No one other than Adam has invested any money in the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund. The only members of Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund are Adam and Jill and Terrington Davies Capital Management LLC (TDCM LLC), and Adam is the only member of TDCM LLC. Using money redeemed from the Tanager Fund, Adam has purchase one house in the name of the Ptarmigan Fund. Because the parties hold a 100% beneficial interest in the Ptarmigan Fund, we can disregard the business formalities and treat the house owned by Ptarmigan Fund as a community asset for purposes of this divorce. There is no one to object if Adam decides to close the entities related to the Ptarmigan Fund.

The Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC is a limited liability company registered in Delaware. (Tab 3) Beyond the registration filings, there are essentially no other corporate documents for this entity. There is no signed operating agreement. No financial statements have ever been prepared. No tax returns have been prepared or filed. There are no minutes of meetings. There are no employees, and no fees have ever been paid by the fund. It would be most accurate to describe the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC as the shell of business that Adam wanted to start, but which was never truly formalized, funded (certainly not by anyone other than Adam), or marketed.

The only assets held by the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC are the house purchased with community funds and a Bank of America checking account with a $139.62 balance of 4/30/10. (Statements produced with discovery materials)

The house purchased through the Ptarmigan fund is located at 868 Montcrest Dr., Redding, California. To complicate matters further, title is held in the name of the "868 Montcrest Dr. Family Trust." The Ptarmigan Fund is the beneficiary of the trust, which means the parties hold 100% of the beneficial interest in this trust. There are no other assets of any kind held in the name of this trust. There should be no issues regarding the trust at mediation because, as with the Ptarmigan Fund LLC and TDCM LLC, we can disregard these corporate forms and

Jennie Laird
June 6, 2010

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

treat the house as community property for purposes of this divorce. Closing documents for the purchase of the house located at 868 Monterest Dr., Redding, CA, are attached. (Tab 4) Adam estimates that the house has a FMV of $215,000. There is no debt on the house at this time.

Terrington Davies Capital Management. TDCM LLC was intended to be the Managing Member and advising entity for Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC. Adam is the sole member of TDCM LLC.

As with the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC, the only available corporate documents for TDCM LLC are the registration documents. (Tab 5) There is no signed operating agreement. There are no employees. No income has ever been generated by this entity. No financial statements have ever been prepared, and no tax returns have ever been prepared or filed. The only assets held by TDCM LLC are: (1) a Bank of America Checking Account which had balance of $12.15 as of 4/30/10, and (2) 492 units in the Tanager Fund with a current value of $474.

When Adam was conceptualizing the relationship between TDCM LLC and the Ptarmigan Fund, he had intended for the Ptarmigan Fund to be able to loan excess funds to the TDCM, its advising entity. Accordingly, there are two large transactions where Adam did the following: (1) transferred community funds from the Tanager Account to the Ptarmigan Fund checking account, (2) "loaned" those funds to TDCM LLC, by transferring the funds to the TDCM LLC checking account and (3) promptly reinvested those funds in the Tanager Fund in the name of TDCM LLC. These two transactions happened as follows:

1. On 6/01/09, Adam redeemed units in the Tanager Fund to raise $165,000. That $165,000 was transferred directly to the Ptarmigan Fund Bank of America checking account on 6/01/09. Adam transferred an additional $10,000 to the Ptarmigan Fund bank account that day from the TDCM Bank of America checking account, for a total deposit on 6/01/09 of $175,000. Adam then transferred $175,000 from the Ptarmigan account to the TDCM checking account. (This was the transaction referred to above as a loan from Ptarmigan to TDCM.) TDCM then issued a check in the amount of the $175,000 which was deposited in the Tanager fund account on 6/02/09. The primary result of this transaction is that a large portion of the parties' investment in the Tanager Fund was now held in the name of TDCM instead of the names of the parties.
2. On 8/03/09, Adam redeemed a portion of TDCM's units in the Tanager Fund to raise $118,000. On 8/03/09, Adam transferred the $118,000 to the Ptarmigan Fund checking account, then to the TDCM checking account (this is the transaction referred to as a loan above), and then back to the Tanager Fund.

Jennie Laird
June 6, 2010

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY/ER 408/PRIVILEGED

There is no documentation of these "loans" other than the bank statements showing the transfers. Adam made these two circuitous transactions on the theory that the parties (with the first transaction on 6/01/09) and then TDCM LLC (with the 8/03/09 transaction) would acquire an equity interest in the Ptarmigan Fund by depositing money in the Ptarmigan Fund account, notwithstanding that the money so deposited was promptly loaned to TDCM LLC.

Adam used the TDCM LLC checking account to pay most of his expenses related to work on the Ptarmigan Fund, which required him to spend significant amounts of time in California. Adam traveled and lived frugally. Some of Adam's expenses which were clearly business-related were paid directly out of the TDCM checking account. Adam also transferred money from the TDCM checking account to his personal checking account so he could use those funds to pay personal living expenses. The funds Adam transferred to his personal checking account from the TDCM checking account were derived from funds that Adam had borrowed from separate sources which had been previously deposited in the TDCM checking account. In particular, Adam made the following deposits to the TDCM checking account from loans that were identified in his response to interrogatories numbers 118-20:

8/12/09	$15,000 borrowed from Lyman Opie
10/08/09	$15,000 borrowed from Lyman Opie
11/13/09	$35,000 borrowed from Lyman Opie

A spreadsheet is attached which shows the source of every deposit to Adam's personal checking account since 1/21/09. (Tab 6) That table shows deposits totaling $58,200 to Adam's personal checking account from the TDCM checking account. Those funds were derived from the $65,000 that Adam borrowed from Mr. Lyman and deposited into the TDCM account.

One final note on the Ptarmigan Fund and TDCM, LLC: When Adam purchased the 868 Montcrest Dr. property for the Ptarmigan Trust, he used $229,000 from the Tanager Fund. Technically, those funds should have flowed from the Tanager Fund Account to the Ptarmigan Fund account and then to the escrow account for closing. Instead, Adam wired the funds directly from the Tanager Fund account to the escrow account on 3/04/10.

I suspect that you and Steve will have additional questions. The most efficient way to resolve whose questions may be to have Steve meet directly with Adam. I would like to present at that meeting. You are of course welcome to join us. I can't meet on Monday unless we do it very late in the day (4 or 5 pm, working late if that's what Steve would like to do). I'm available Tuesday after 11:00 a.m., Wednesday except 2-4:00 p.m., and all day Thursday. Please let me know if Steve would like to meet with us.

Re: Formation of Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC

Dear Mr. Grossman:

Please be advised that the above captioned Limited Liability Company ("LLC") was filed and became effective in Delaware on May 7, 2009. Enclosed is the filed stamped copy of the Certificate of Formation returned to us by the office of the Delaware Secretary of State.

In addition, enclosed for your review and the signature of each member, is the Limited Liability Company Agreement which is a private agreement of which each Member should keep a completed and signed copy in his, her or its personal records. Since additional information is required to complete the LLC Agreement, please note that you need to do the following:

Page No.

1. In the first paragraph, fill in the date the Agreement is signed;
2. In paragraph 1.5, fill in the principal place of business of the LLC;
- 2&3. In paragraph 3.2, enter the amount of initial capital contribution by each Member, and, in paragraph 3.5 the number of voting units to be owned by each Member;
6. In paragraph 6.3, please insert the name of the Member to be the "Tax Matters Member" for income tax purposes;
7. The Voting Members with the majority of Voting Units may delegate their power and authority to a President, Secretary and Treasurer, who could all be the same person and could be a Member of the Company, by filling in their name or names in Paragraph 7.1;
17. In paragraph 11.1 provide the addresses requested.

DELAWARE IS THE FIRST 583 E FOR INCORPORATION

Enclosed is the Form SS-4 Application for Employer Identification Number (EIN) which is required if your LLC has two or more Members. You may call the Internal Revenue Service at 1 (800) 829-4933 to request the assignment of the EIN number unless you paid us to apply for the EIN.

Our easily understood 11 page Tax and Legal Tips is available on our Web Site. We have enclosed sample Promissory Notes and Medical Reimbursement Plan. Form 2553 is also enclosed if you want to make a Subchapter S Election for your LLC.

We have enclosed Internal Revenue Service Form 8832, Entity Classification Election if you want your LLC classified as a taxable corporation (C Corporation) instead of a sole proprietorship (One Member LLC) or partnership (Multi Member LLC). If you decide to file it, you should complete the Form and check the appropriate boxes in Sections 1 and 2 as to how you want this L.L.C. to be classified with the Internal Revenue Service. The Managing Member should then sign the completed Form and file it with the Internal Revenue Service Office located near you within 75 days after the date of formation or beginning of a tax year.

If this Delaware L.L.C. does business in other states, we suggest that you consult with legal counsel in that state to determine if the L.L.C. should qualify to do business in that state. The same is true if the L.L.C. does business outside of the United States.

REMINDERS.

Please be reminded that the Registered Agent address is not and should never be used as a business address for your LLC. State law requires every LLC to have a Registered Agent for the sole purpose to accept and forward any service of process due to legal action against your LLC and to forward State reports.

Once a year you will receive from us the Delaware Annual LLC Tax Notice to file with the Delaware Secretary of State with the required payment or pay online in order to keep your LLC in good standing. You will also receive our Registered Agent bill for $90.00 once a year. Please let us know of any changes in the contact person or address.

This completes the formation of this Limited Liability Company. If you have any questions, please call our Incorporation specialists.

Yours truly,

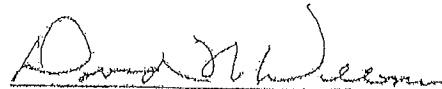

David N. Williams

GENERAL PROVISIONS
(Addendum #1)

1. DEPOSIT OF FUNDS AND DISBURSEMENTS

All funds deposited in this escrow from any source shall be deposited by escrow holder in a non-interest bearing demand account or accounts in a state or national bank or savings and loan association. The depositor(s) may, at their election, request deposit of funds in an interest bearing account and escrow holder may charge a fee for establishing such account. The deposit of funds in a non-interest bearing account by escrow holder may result in escrow holder receiving a range of economic benefits from bank in the form of services, credits, benefits, or other things of value. All disbursement shall be made by Escrow Holder's check unless otherwise instructed in writing.

2. PRORATIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS

All prorations and/or adjustments called for in this escrow are to be made on the basis of a thirty (30) day month unless otherwise instructed in writing. The phrase "close of escrow" (C.O.E.) as used in this escrow means the date on which documents are recorded and relate only to proration and/or adjustments unless otherwise specified.

3. RECORDATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Escrow Holder is authorized to record any documents delivered through this escrow, if necessary or proper for the issuance of the requested policy of title insurance. Recordation of documents shall be construed as "close of escrow" unless otherwise specified in these instructions.

4. AUTHORIZATION TO FURNISH COPIES

Escrow Holder is authorized to furnish copies of these instructions, supplements, amendments or notices of cancellations, and closing statements in this escrow, to the real estate broker(s), lender(s), attorney(s), accountant(s) involved in this escrow as well as the title insurer issuing any requested policy(ies) of title insurance upon the request of said lenders, real estate brokers, attorneys, accountants and title insurer.

5. PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES

No examinations, UCC search or insurance as to personal property and/or the amount of payment of personal property taxes is required unless otherwise instructed in writing.

6. PROPERTY TAXES

Escrow Holder will prorate taxes on real property based on the latest available tax figures.

7. SUPPLEMENTAL PROPERTY TAXES

Buyer and Seller herein acknowledge that there may be supplemental and/or additional taxes which may be assessed by reason of change in ownership or completion of construction pursuant to California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 75 et seq.. This will be reflected in the policy of title insurance issued at close of escrow. Escrow Holder shall not be concerned with any adjustment(s) or supplemental taxes between the parties for bills received by the parties after the close of escrow. Escrow Holder shall also not be concerned with, or liable for payment, adjustment or proration of supplemental taxes assessed prior to close of escrow, unless said supplemental tax assessments are specifically reflected on the Tax Assessor's rolls or Seller provides any supplemental tax bills to Escrow Holder with an explanation of time periods covered by the tax bill(s) for proration purposes. All assessments not shown on the tax rolls, or not specifically disclosed to Escrow Holder in writing are to be adjusted by the parties outside of escrow without liability to Escrow Holder.

8. AUTHORIZATION TO CORRECT OR AMEND DEED

Buyer and Seller hereby authorize Escrow Holder to correct or amend after execution, the Grant Deed(s) being executed by Seller herein to 1) conform to the vesting of any Deed of Trust (if applicable); being executed by Buyer in this transaction; 2) at the request of Buyer, change or insert the method of holding title to the subject property or 3) correct any typographical errors in the name of the grantor or grantee.

9. RIGHT OF CANCELLATION

Any party instructing Escrow Holder to cancel this escrow shall timely file a notice of cancellation in the specific office of Escrow Holder which is handling the escrow, and so state the reason for cancellation. Upon receipt of such request, Escrow Holder, shall prepare cancellation instructions for signatures of the principals and shall forward same to the principals by certified and/or regular mail. Unless a written objection to cancellation is filed in Escrow Holder's office within 10 days after day of mailing, Escrow Holder is authorized at its option to comply with the notice and demand for payment of Escrow Holder's cancellation charges and other fees or costs incurred in the escrow and set forth in the cancellation instructions. If written objection is filed or Escrow Holder does not receive mutual instructions signed by all parties, Escrow Holder is authorized to hold all money and instruments in this escrow and take no further action until otherwise directed either by mutual instructions or final order of a court of competent jurisdiction, except that Escrow Holder may collect its cancellation charges and other fees or costs incurred in the escrow unless a written objection to said fees and/or charges was received in writing by Escrow Holder within 10 days of mailing the cancellation instructions. This does not in any way limit or revoke the right of Escrow Holder to elect to file an interpleader or institute other legal action as set forth in paragraph 10 of these General Provisions.

10. ACTION IN INTERPLEADER OR OTHER COURT PROCEEDINGS

The principals hereto expressly agree that you, as Escrow Holder, have the absolute right at your election to file an action in interpleader requiring the principals to answer and litigate their several claims and rights among themselves and you are authorized to deposit with the clerk of the court all documents and funds held in escrow. In the event such action is filed, the principals jointly and severally agree to pay your cancellation charges and costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees which you are required to expend or incur in such interpleader action, the amount thereof to be fixed and judgment therefor to be rendered by the court. Upon filing of such action, you shall thereupon be fully released and discharged from all obligations to further perform any duties or obligations otherwise imposed by the terms of this escrow. If you are required to respond to any legal summons or proceedings or if any action of interpleader or declaratory relief is brought by you, we jointly and severally agree to pay all costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees expended or incurred by you, and a lien is hereby created in your company's favor to cover said items. We agree to save you harmless as escrow holder hereunder from all loss and expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs sustained by reason of any legal action or otherwise, which may in any way arise out of this escrow, before or after closing, notwithstanding anything in these instructions to the contrary.

11. TERMINATION OF AGENCY OBLIGATION AND PAYMENT OF FEES AND CHARGES

If there is no action taken on this escrow within three (3) months after the estimated closing date as shown on the escrow instructions or any written extensions thereof, Escrow Holder's agency obligation shall terminate at Escrow Holder's option, and Escrow Holder shall prepare cancellation instructions for all parties in the manner set forth in Section 9 (Cancellation) and Section 10 (Interpleader). Nothing in this section limits or revokes Escrow Holder's right to file an interpleader or institute other legal action pursuant to paragraph 10 of these General Provisions.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12. CONFLICTING INSTRUCTIONS

Should Escrow Holder before or after close of escrow receive or become aware of any conflicting demands or claims with respect to this escrow or the rights to any of the parties hereto, or any money or property deposited hereto or affected hereby, Escrow Holder shall have the right to discontinue any or all further acts on Escrow Holder's part until the conflict is resolved to Escrow Holder's satisfaction, and Escrow Holder shall have the further right to commence or defend any action or proceeding for the determination of the conflict as provided in Paragraph 9 (Cancellation) and Paragraph 10 (Interpleader) of these General Provisions.

13. ABANDONED, UNCLAIMED OR DISPUTED FUNDS

Any funds held by Escrow Holder after close of escrow, or after conflicting demands have been made to Escrow Holder regarding the funds, or any funds abandoned or remaining unclaimed shall be maintained pursuant to paragraph 1 of these General Provisions, unless otherwise instructed by the principals in writing. After three years, the remaining amount of any unclaimed or abandoned funds may escheat to the State of California. Nothing in this section limits or avokes the right of Escrow Holder to file an Interpleader or other court action pursuant to paragraph 10 of these General Provisions.

14. INSURANCE, POLICIES OTHER THAN TITLE INSURANCE

When dealing with real property and/or improvements located thereon it is advisable to obtain fire, hazard or liability insurance coverage. In all acts in this escrow relating to insurance, including adjustments, if any, Escrow Holder may assume that each policy is in force and that the necessary premium has been paid. Escrow Holder shall not be responsible for obtaining evidence of fire, hazard or liability insurance, unless Escrow Holder has received written instructions prior to close of escrow from the parties and/or their respective lenders.

15. USURY

Escrow Holder is not to be concerned with any questions of usury in any loan or encumbrance involved in the processing of this escrow, including any notes or loan documents prepared by Escrow Holder pursuant to our instructions, and is hereby released of responsibility or liability therefor.

16. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY RE: CLERICAL OR MATHEMATICAL ERRORS

In the event Escrow Holder miscalculates or otherwise makes an error in determining applicable prorations, in computing, paying, and/or obtaining lender or other payoff demands or statements, or in determining the amount of required funds from either party for the close of escrow, such error or miscalculation shall not relieve any party from any liability such party would otherwise have had if no such error or miscalculation had been made. To the extent that Escrow Holder shall advance its own funds to mitigate the effects of any miscalculation or error, Escrow Holder shall have the right to immediate reimbursement of such amounts advanced, together with interest at the rate of 10% per annum on the amount advanced plus any attorneys' fees or collection fees incurred.

17. ARBITRATION

Either Escrow Holder or any party to these escrow instructions may demand arbitration pursuant to the title insurance arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association. Arbitrable matters may include, but are not limited to, any controversy or claim between Escrow Holder and any party to the escrow arising out of or relating to these instructions, any service of Escrow Holder in connection with its performance of its escrow duties. Arbitration pursuant to these instructions and under the rules in effect on the date the demand for arbitration is made shall be binding upon the parties. Any award shall include attorneys' fees. Judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The law of the State of California shall be the applicable law. A copy of the rules of the American Arbitration Association may be obtained from the Escrow Holder upon request.

18. REAL ESTATE CONTRACTS

Escrow Holder is not a party to the underlying Real Estate Contract. Unless the Real Estate Contract also constitutes joint escrow instructions, which instructions have been accepted in writing by escrow holder, escrow holder accepts no responsibility to discharge conditions or contingencies of the contract, and then only to the extent required by that portion of the contract which constitutes escrow instructions.

19. FACSIMILES

In the event the parties to the transaction transmit signed documents or instructions (other than those documents which must be recorded and bear original notarized signatures) to Escrow Holder by facsimile, Escrow Holder may rely on said documents or instructions in the same manner as if they bore original signatures. Upon Escrow Holder's request, the party transmitting the facsimile document or instruction will provide Escrow Holder the original of the document or instruction which bears original signatures within 72 hours after transmission.

20. REPRESENTATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

The parties who have affixed their signature(s) to these instructions do hereby represent that they have no knowledge of any obligations, debts, encumbrances, covenants or agreements, other than those specific items referenced within these instructions or any amendment thereto that might result in a lien, outstanding interest, or exception to title as of the close of escrow. Said parties do hereby indemnify and agree to reimburse Escrow Holder for any loss, costs, and attorneys' fees resulting from any false representation or failure to disclose such matters referred to under this paragraph, and those which might be created hereafter but prior to said close of escrow.

21. ESCROW NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYMENT OF BILLS

The undersigned acknowledge that any charges for work or inspections on the property are solely the responsibility of the parties to this escrow. Escrow Holder will not be responsible for payment of or collection of payment from parties to this escrow for any bills submitted to escrow other than those that have been approved for payment on the Buyer's, Seller's and Borrower's settlement statements. If bills are submitted by Seller, Buyer or their agents after the settlement statements have been approved, they will be charged to the respective party as verbally instructed by the submitting party.

22. AUTHORIZATION TO OBTAIN PAYOFF AND OTHER INFORMATION

The undersigned hereby instructs and authorizes escrow holder to obtain pay off demands and such other information as escrow holder deems necessary from any creditors or lien holders that are to be paid in whole or in part through this escrow and authorizes said creditors or lien holders to provide such information to escrow holder.

NOTICE: A lien for property taxes applies to your property on January 1 of each year for the taxes owing in the following fiscal year, July 1 through June 30. One-half of these taxes is due November 1, and one-half is due February 1. The first installment becomes delinquent on December 10, and the second installment becomes delinquent on April 10. One tax bill is mailed before November 1 to the owner of record. You may be responsible for the current or upcoming property taxes even if you do not receive the tax bill.

The property which you acquired may be subject to a supplemental assessment in an amount to be determined by the SHASTA County Assessor. For further information on your supplemental roll obligation, please call the SHASTA County Assessor at 530-225-3800.

Re: Formation of Terrington Davies Capital Management LLC

Dear Mr. Grossman:

27-0161957

Please be advised that the above captioned Limited Liability Company ("L.L.C.") was formed and became effective in Delaware on May 7, 2009. Enclosed is a stamped filed copy of the Certificate of Formation as returned to us by the office of the Delaware Secretary of State.

In addition, enclosed for your review and the signature of each member, is the Limited Liability Company Agreement which is a private agreement of which each Member should keep a completed and signed copy in his, her or its personal records. Since additional information is required to complete the LLC Agreement, please note that you need to do the following:

Page No.

1. In the first paragraph, fill in the date the Agreement is signed;
2. In paragraph 1.5, fill in the principal place of business of the LLC;
- 2&3. In paragraph 3.2, enter the amount of initial capital contribution by each Member, and, in paragraph 3.5 the number of voting units to be owned by each Member;
6. In paragraph 6.3, please insert the name of the Member to be the "Tax Matters Member" for income tax purposes;
7. The Voting Members with the majority of Voting Units may delegate their power and authority to a President, Secretary and Treasurer, who could all be the same person and could be a Member of the Company, by filling in their name or names in Paragraph 7.1;
17. In paragraph 11.1 provide the addresses requested.

DELAWARE IS THE FIRST CHOICE FOR INCORPORATION

Enclosed is the Form SS-4 Application for Employer Identification Number (EIN) which is required if your LLC has two or more Members. You may call the Internal Revenue Service at 1 (800) 829-4933 to request the assignment of the EIN number unless you paid us to apply for the EIN.

Our easily understood 11 page Tax and Legal Tips is available on our Web Site. We have enclosed sample Promissory Notes and Medical Reimbursement Plan. Form 2553 is also enclosed if you want to make a Subchapter S Election for your LLC.

We have enclosed Internal Revenue Service Form 8832, Entity Classification Election if you want your LLC classified as a taxable corporation (C Corporation) instead of a sole proprietorship (One Member LLC) or partnership (Multi Member LLC). If you decide to file it, you should complete the Form and check the appropriate boxes in Sections 1 and 2 as to how you want this L.L.C. to be classified with the Internal Revenue Service. The Managing Member should then sign the completed Form and file it with the Internal Revenue Service Office located near you within 75 days after the date of formation or beginning of a tax year.

If this Delaware L.L.C. does business in other states, we suggest that you consult with legal counsel in that state to determine if the L.L.C. should qualify to do business in that state. The same is true if the L.L.C. does business outside of the United States.

REMINDERS

Please be reminded that the Registered Agent address is not and should never be used as a business address for your LLC. State law requires every LLC to have a Registered Agent for the sole purpose to accept and forward any service of process due to legal action against your LLC and to forward State reports.

Once a year you will receive from us the Delaware Annual LLC Tax Notice to file with the Delaware Secretary of State with the required payment or pay online in order to keep your LLC in good standing. You will also receive our Registered Agent bill for $90.00 once a year. Please let us know of any changes in the contact person or address.

This completes the formation of this Limited Liability Company. If you have any questions, please call our incorporation specialists.

Yours truly,

David N. Williams
